Principal's Report

We have received the new DE&T Operations Guide and I am so excited to see from Monday 1st of November that we are allowed to hold excursions, incursions and other school events, subject to density limits and COVID Safe restrictions. Several permission forms have been sent out via uEducateUs this week. Please make sure you log in to the app and approve these as soon as possible.

Cartooning Workshop—9th November

Murrindindi Library Service is running a cartooning workshop in Buxton. We will all be participating in the workshop, it should be lots of fun.

Remembrance Day Service Marysville - Thursday 11th November

We will be taking all students to the service in Marysville, with two students laying a wreath on behalf of the school. Parents are welcome to attend too.

Murrindindi Shire Council Excursion - Wednesday 17th November

We will be meeting with the Mayor and Councillors and having a tour as part of our Civics and Citizenship studies.

Arts Centre Melbourne Excursion—25th November

All students are travelling to Melbourne, with the younger students going to see the play "Magic Beach, and the senior students touring the National Gallery of Victoria. Students will need wear school uniform, bring lunch, snacks and a water bottle.

Alexandra Secondary College Year 7 Transition

Great news that the Year 7 transition program can go ahead and starts next week. New permission forms will be coming home today. Please return to school as soon as possible.

Early notice—Swimming Program

We plan to run our swimming program in the last two weeks of Term 4. More information to come next week.

Public Holiday

A reminder that Tuesday 2nd November is Melbourne Cup Public Holiday. Our school is open on Monday 1st November for students to attend as normal. Can you please notify me in advance if your child will not be attending school on Monday.
